"The General Power of Competence - England only

S.1(1) of the Localism Act 2011 ("the 2011 Act") provides that a local authority has power to do anything that individuals generally may do. "Local authority" is defined in s.8 of the 2011 Act and includes an eligible parish council (see paragraph 22 below). S.2 sets out the boundaries of the general power. Subsection (2) provides that the general power does not enable an eligible local council to do (a) anything which the authority is unable to do by virtue of a pre-commencement limitation, or (b) anything which the authority is unable to do by virtue of a post-commencement limitation which is expressed to apply (i) to the general power, (ii) to all of the authority's powers, or (iii) to all of the authority's powers but with exceptions that do not include the general power. An example of a pre-commencement limitation is s.8(1)(i) and (k) of the Local Government Act 1894, which prevent a council from spending money on property relating to affairs of the church or held for an ecclesiastical charity."

To consider for approval outcome of review

“18th October 2018 Dear Malcolm,

This is just a very quick email to inform you that the Community Governance Reviews for Kilpeck Group Parish has been approved by full Council. The full report tabled at, and the audio recording made of, the full Council meeting where the CGRs were discussed can be found here (item no. 9) →

<http://councillors.herefordshire.gov.uk/ieListDocuments.aspx?CId=291&MId=6540&Ver=4>

We have produced a parish order to enable these changes to take place; in summary, the process will now allow for the dissolving and abolition of all five existing group parish members and the creation of a new parish which will be call ‘Kilpeck Parish’. These changes will be coming in to force in April 2019. This change will not make any direct changes to the number of parish councillors as we have specified in the order that the new parish council shall retain nine parish council seats. The key change will be administrative whereby the five existing parishes shall cease to exist – being succeeded by the new parish of Kilpeck. Incidentally, while the evidence in the consultation indicated good support for the new parish to be named ‘Kilpeck Parish’ there was also – to a lesser degree – support for the new parish to be called ‘Kilpeck and Wormbridge’. If – in going forward – parishioners feel strongly about changing the name you do not need to go through another CGR to do this. There are provisions to change a parish name outside of this process (see item 10 in the above link – where Cradley parish Council has requested a name change). I am very happy to discuss if there is any appetite to consider this.

If I could also take this opportunity to offer you my very sincere thanks for all your assistance you have provided during the last year as we have taken the CGRs forward. Your help and advice has been superb and I was so very grateful to draw upon your local knowledge, guidance and support.

With my very best wishes, John Coleman Directorate: Legal and Democratic Services

Stop That Thief Burglary of sheds and outbuilding is still one of the main concerns amongst the rural community

Burglary of sheds and outbuildings is still one of the main concerns amongst the rural community.

Although the incidents remain low, it is still a major worry by people living in remote locations.

Our Priority is to keep you and your property safe from harm and theft, we are therefore providing advice on how the community can help themselves from becoming victims of crime.

West Mercia Police have recently introduced a scheme called "Stop That Thief" aimed at helping businesses and farms from becoming victims of crime. Working in partnership with the National Farmers Union (NFU) through the local Safer Neighbourhood teams can add another layer of security to your home, farm or other business where vulnerabilities are identified during a series of specific assessments. These start with a visit from your local officer and if appropriate a referral to Stop That Thief! specialist who will carry out a survey to look at ways to help protect your property. This will be fully discussed with you to make sure it fulfils your requirements.

The security measures are installed by a trained technician working on behalf of the NFU, for a trial period of up to three weeks. This compliments the advice provided during a visit by your local officer on crime reduction measures including security marking and property listing.

All visits and advice are offered free and without obligation. Costs for the fitting of any equipment, if agreed, will be made clear during the specialist survey. For further information contact us or direct to "Stop That Thief"

Safe Found A member of the public has handed in a small safe to Hereford Front Counter which had been thrown into a pond off Church Road, Clehonger, Hereford. There is damage to the lock and it has obviously been out in the elements for some time. We have been unable to trace where it has been either stolen or missing from. If you have any information please contact one of us at Peterchurch.

Dying 2 Drive targets young car drivers – Herefordshire schools are encouraged to attend

Hereford & Worcester Fire and Rescue Service ran Dying 2 Drive 2018 at Peterchurch Fire Station until Friday 21 September 2018.

The hard-hitting campaign targets Y11 and Y12 students in Herefordshire in the years before they can learn to drive a car, to help reduce the number of deaths and injuries of young drivers (17 to 24 years old).

In Herefordshire, in the five years 2013 to 2017, 42 people died in crashes involving young drivers – and more than 2,500 were injured. Eleven fatalities in the county occurred in 2017 from RTCs involving young drivers.

Last year, Dying 2 Drive was attended by more than 3,000 Y11 students across Herefordshire and Worcestershire and the campaign aims to reach even more in 2018.

"Despite the intensive content of Dying 2 Drive, too many young drivers are still dying or suffering serious injuries on the county's roads," said Watch Commander Pete Hope.

"Eleven people died last year on Herefordshire's roads in cars driven by young drivers - almost double the number of deaths in 2016. We hope that all the high schools in Herefordshire will take advantage of this free opportunity to learn important lessons for life and reduce the chance of road deaths of pupils who are able to drive."

Road Safety Team Inspector Adrian Davis of West Mercia Police, said: "The Dying 2 Drive workshops are an impressive and effective series of road safety workshops, we work with our colleagues from the Fire and Ambulance services, and other organisations, to help to educate soon-to-be young drivers with the vital skills and knowledge that will help keep them safe on the road."

Nationally young drivers are at a much higher risk of crashing than older drivers. Although drivers aged 17-19 are only 1.5% of UK licence holders, they are involved in 9% of fatal and serious crashes where they are the driver¹.

Dying 2 Drive gives future drivers the opportunity to explore the choices and consequences of poor driving behaviour. Each session takes just over two hours to help them understand the risks of speed, distractions, and impairments on safe driving, via a road traffic collision reconstruction and practical interactive workshops. The bereaved mother of a young driver also shares her experience of losing her 23 year old daughter in a fatal crash.

How often should I clean my chimney? HWFRS recommend the following simple maintenance routines:

- Solid fuel fires – Once a year for smokeless fuel; twice a year for coal
- Wood burning fires – four times a year when in use
- Gas fires – Once a year if designed for sweeping
- Oil fires – Once a year

The Fire Service also advises that you:

- Place a fireguard in front of the fire at all times
- Extinguish all fires before going to bed or leaving the property unattended
- Do not burn paper or rubbish on fires in the grate
- Check for smoke from cracks in the chimney breast
- Install a working smoke alarm in the roof space (note: manufacturers may not recommend installing their product in an unconverted loft space and doing so may invalidate the warranty of the product. Please check the guidance notes or contact the manufacturer prior to installation)
- Consider fitting a carbon monoxide detector

Soot and smoke from a small chimney fire can cause extensive damage to personal property while larger fires can damage the roof, wipe out the first floor or even destroy a home completely.

Ensure that your smoke alarms, including any fitted in the roof space, are in full working order you have early warning should the chimney catch alight.

Additional information and advice regarding safely heating your home using solid fuel can be found on the HETAS website. This includes information, guidance and HETAS advice on the following topics:

- Chimneys and linings
- Carbon Monoxide
- Installing and using solid fuel stove
- Solid fuel appliances and Building Regulations
- Smoke control areas

Scam news Telephone scam An elderly resident from our area had been having trouble with his computer at home and not received emails for the last few weeks. He received a call to his landline from an unknown Indian lady who said she was from Microsoft. She stated he was due a £500 refund for his computer, but that the minimum amount that Microsoft could send was £2500 because they don't work in smaller amounts. The resident would then have to pay back the £2000 over payment. The lady kept him talking for about an hour and agreed to call him back in the morning.

The next day she rang back and the resident checked his online banking which showed a pending transaction of £2500. She stated that he would have to go to Hereford Post office to send money directly to the Portugal branch of Microsoft because they are an international company and that it would be sent to a named individual at the company called Gurmail SINGH to save on business costs. She also told him that he must tell the Post office staff that he knew this male personally. The unknown woman then kept calling him on his mobile as he travelled to Hereford in his car, and as he was walking around town.

The resident thought this could be a scam so he went into his bank and they called police. The bank staff tried to get him to stay at the bank but the Indian lady (still on the phone) told him he must transfer the money otherwise she would freeze all of the money in his bank account.

He then went to the post office and was filling in Moneygram Transfer paperwork to send £1950 to Portugal. However, the police located him as he was doing this and stopped the transaction taking place.

Scam reports Telephone scam This one is from one of our readers; we have had several similar reports.

“I just thought I'd let you know of a scam phone call that I received this morning, purporting to be from BT, which is not one that the BT team, when I phoned back later on 152, said they had come across before - though it was similar to others they knew about.

The phone call came from a Premium line number - 01289 718956. When I picked up the receiver I listened to a recorded SMS message telling me that my ip address had been compromised last night, that my internet was not secure and that I would be disconnected. It was suggested I selected option 1 on my phone to be put through to the BT technical team to provide more information.

There was no wait to be put through when I did this - unusual for any BT department these days - and when I spoke to Nadia she asked how she could help. I replied that I had been put through to her having received an SMS message about my ip address, but I was suspicious that this was a scam. She asked me if I'd had to select an option to be put through, and I said yes (there were no other options to select) which she suggested was confirmation that it was indeed BT, which I didn't accept. I said this was insufficient proof, but asked why they couldn't just provide me with a new ip address, and what else they proposed. Nadia then put down the phone. It was later on that I phoned BT to check that there were no issues, and was reassured that everything was in order, but the call did initially make me wonder. Having just done a phone number on Google, there do appear to be reports of BT scams coming from numbers with the 01289 code.”

E-mail scams Obviously a scam, but not very pleasant.

Hello - I actually came to know all of the scummy secrets. I won't explain you what exactly I am aware of, I have all the information with me.

To demonstrate this, allow myself tell you that one of your passwords is ginger. Pay me $2000 via Bitcoin to the address 19ZB2S1u9esLddbWKDfUhzm6JphoYdAzcZ in the next 44 hrs. Ok, i will make one important thing precise, that I will damage your life fully if I don't get the payment. In the event that I get the payment, I'm going to remove every info I've with me, and I will vanish entirely and you will definitely don't ever hear anything from me. This is the first and also last mail from me and the offer is non negotiable, thus do not answer to this e-mail.

News from your local Fire crews

December brings the build up to Christmas and the festive season. The traditions around Christmas – be it faith-based or otherwise – can result in Christmas being a more hazardous time with regards to fire safety. These extra fire risks include:

- increased cooking and potentially cooking whilst under the influence of alcohol.
- increased use of candles in the home
- decorations which may burn very easily
- Christmas tree lights which haven't been used for a year and/or may be faulty

Christmas fire safety messages

In recent years, excessive alcohol consumption has been a major contributor to not only fires, but fire-related casualties. With the likelihood of increased alcohol consumption and cooking across the festive period, we would urge people to:

- Don't cook if you have been drinking and never leave cooking unattended.
- Never place candles near your Christmas tree or materials that can catch alight easily.
- Keep candles, lighters and matches out of children's reach. Never leave lit candles unattended.
- Never overload electrical sockets. Always switch Christmas lights off and unplug them before you go to bed.
- Decorations can burn easily – so don't attach them to lights or heaters.
- Take time to check on older relatives and neighbours this Christmas as they are potentially at greater risk from fire.
- Make sure your family and visitors know how to escape in an emergency.
- Check that your Christmas tree lights carry this British Safety Standard sign.
